

Monday

We know they appreciated the fresh air as in the text it says they experienced the world's beauty.

You can tell he has been busy because it says

I have learned so much about the environment and it says describes lots of different places.

I think they love their accommodation as it says a luxury tree house with an outdoor shower.

In this paragraph we know that the manager is kind as he offers ~~us~~^{them} free breakfast and greets them kindly. He has enjoyed it so much he says I don't know when I'll be back. He is adventurous as otherwise he wouldn't have come or done the tree climbing.

Adorably

Adorably

Applicably

Applicably

Considerably

Considerably

tolerable

tolerable

probably

probably

unsuitably

unsuitably

reliably

reliably

miserably

miserably

In this sentence to live and ~~but~~ breath means to be very enthusiastic. Agility
He could have used ~~device~~. Exciting and exhilarating
Elite

English Wednesday

repetition

power of 3

~~total~~ rhetorical question

power of 3

rhetorical question

modal verb ~~and question~~

repetition

English Thursday

~~OR~~ IF my parents told me I could have a new pet I'd have an otter because they are friendly, cute and funny. It would be tireless, funny, and quicker if my teacher let me use a laptop. If my best friend invited me to be his partner I would be happy, excited and relieved. If my headteacher let me eat icecream on Fridays I'd be thrilled, excited and happy.

Friday

1. Mature Sensible reliable
2. Spelling grammar punctuation
3. Sensible entertaining reliable
4. raising spirits releasing stress and bring us together.

The ~~my~~ magnificent creature was far from small. Its huge ~~sp~~ snowy wings each very long went gently from up to down like a dolphin jumping in and out the water. Its huge & pale^{blue} eyes shimmering in the sun.