

Ancient Greek

Government.

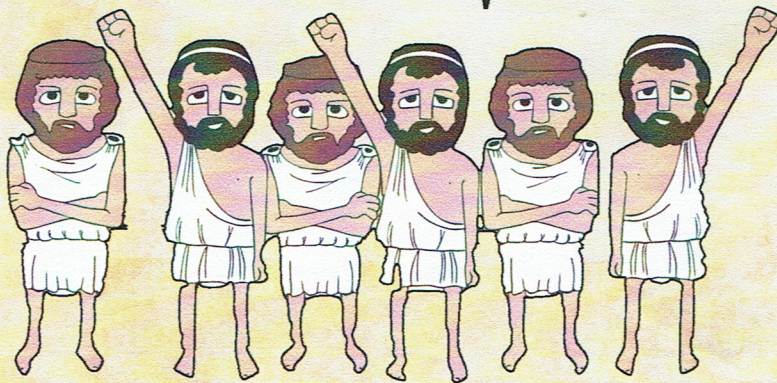

MONARCHY

OLIGARCHY

DEMOCRACY

By Isabelle Collier.

Tuesday 28th April 2020

1. Government.

1. A government is who makes decisions and rules the country.

2. Monarchy.

• A King has total power and women were never allowed to rule at this time. When the king died they usually give their power to their eldest son.

3. Oligarchy.

This is when few rule many. They were often rich men and were usually unpopular because of their unfair laws.

4. Democracy.

Democracy is when the majority has power. Every year 500 names are picked at random these are the council. The council made the laws which were voted for or against.

Monarchy.

I believe that I rule Corinth grandly. But sometimes I think I'm a disadvantage to all the people of this city-state. But at least they have a bit of structure and I'm the perfect man for making quick decisions.

KING OF CORINTH

Monarchy

It's so unfair in life. I feel very low. Also so very small in public and all my life. I don't get a single say. I dare not refuse though.

CITIZEN LIVING UNDER MONARCHY RULE

OLIGARCHY

I'm very ecstatic that I am part of the group I think these rules are completely fair. It's like walking on air with all this money.

MEMBER OF OLIGARCHY