Background Information

In this terms topic we are researching and studying a range of significant artist through out history. First we will be researching Piet Mondrian and the creating our own artwork based on his style. Afterwards, we will study the artist Helen Frankenthaler and create a piece of artwork based off her style. Finally, we will study Frida Kahlo and create are own self-portrait inspired by her.

Let all that you do be done in Love
1 Corinthians 16:14

Key facts

Frida Kahlo was a Mexican painter. She mostly painted self-portraits and still-life pictures on tin sheets and, later, canvases.

Piet Mondrian was a Dutch painter, born in the Netherlands. Throughout his life, his style gradually changed from realistic to more abstract.

Key People

Frida Kahlo
Piet Mondrian
Helen Frankenthaler

Amazing Artist

New York
Netherlands
Mexico

In this Unit children will:

I can research a significant figure.

I can create artwork inspired by Piet Mondrian.

I can retrieve information about a significant figure.

I can create artwork inspired by Helen Frankenthaler.

I can create a self-portrait based on Frida Kahlo's artwork.

Transferable vocabulary & concepts

Retrieving information from a text.

Using a range of art techniques and skills.

Key Vocabulary

Significant - A significant fact, event, or thing is one that is important or shows something.

Figure – A figure is a person.

Artwork - Artworks are paintings or sculptures which are of high quality.

Timeline of Key Events

1872 – Piet Mondrian is born   1907 – Frida Kahlo was born   1928 – Helen Frankenthaler was born   1944 – Piet Mondrian died   1954 – Frida Kahlo died

2011 – Helen Frankenthaler died