

Communication and Language

Children will have the opportunity to read, listen to and discuss a range of books. They will enrich their vocabulary through discussion of our topic for this term – the Battle of Naseby. Children will go on a trip around Naseby and learn to recount their experience. We will also continue to discuss the seasons and the changes we notice in spring.

Numeracy

This term, we will continue to use the White Rose scheme of work. Our topics will include building numbers beyond 10, counting patterns beyond 10, spatial reasoning, adding more and taking away.

Understanding the World

We will be learning all about the history of the Battle of Naseby! We will also learn about the geographical location of Naseby and explore some features of the village.

The children will learn how to programme Beebots to travel along a 3D map of Naseby. In RE this term, we will be exploring which places are special and why.

In science, we will continue to learn about the changes in weather and seasons, with a focus on spring.

Literacy

During morning sessions, children will continue to be taught phonics using the Read Write Inc scheme.

As part of our topic on the Battle of Naseby, the class will be reading a range of books including 'In Every House on Every Street' by Jess Hitchman. We will also be exploring a range of poems.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

The theme for PSHE sessions this term, is 'Being my Best'. This will include learning about healthy lifestyles and mental wellbeing. Children will also have the opportunity to work together on projects and to take turns in group activities.

Expressive Arts and Design

The children will continue to develop a range of artistic techniques, including drawing, sketching, collage and painting.

Physical Development

Children will continue to develop gross motor skills through participation in PE lessons with our Pacesetters coach, Miss Emma. The focus for this term is multi-skills. The children will also participate in weekly yoga sessions with Mrs Chamberlain!

Children will continue to develop fine motor skills by practising handwriting skills, creating small world scenes of the Battle of Naseby, and using scissors to create artwork.
